Dear Ms. Roe Lach:

Attached is the response by The Ohio State University to the Supplemental Notice of Allegations.

By copy of this letter, the University is requesting, consistent with the conversations between Chuck Smrt, the University's consultant on this matter, and Stephanie Hannah, that the Enforcement Staff submit its case summary by November 17.

Further, pursuant to the second bullet point in Stephanie Hannah's November 3 letter to Mr. Cooper, the University requests that the Committee on Infractions review the case via conference call during the week of November 28 and render a final decision on this case as soon thereafter as possible.

Since the University agrees with the allegations, it does not believe an in-person appearance is necessary. However, it requests the opportunity to change that position—depending upon the decision made by the Enforcement Staff and the Committee on Infractions—over the next few weeks regarding the processing of this case.

Thank you for your consideration of these requests.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads 'E. Gordon Gee'.
