

University Policy Process

Example Stakeholder List

Policy writers should ask for and use input and feedback from stakeholders relevant to the policy.

It is crucial to include individuals who actually implement the policy.

This list is not all inclusive – its goal is to provide examples to expand policy writers' thinking.

Send additional suggestions to: hornsbj.1@osu.edu, updated 10-13-08

University Offices

Academic Affairs
Board of Trustees
Colleges
Departments
Enrollment services & undergraduate education
Faculty and TA Development
Government relations
Internal Audit
International Affairs
International Studies
The James
Legal Affairs
Medical Center
Minority Affairs
OSU Extension
OSURF
The Women's Place
University Archives
University Libraries
University Police
VP units

Policy Owners

Academic Affairs
Athletics
Board of Trustees
Business and Finance
Chief Information Officer
Graduate School
Human Resources
Legal Affairs
Research
Student Affairs
Enrollment services & undergraduate education
University Development
University Libraries (Archives)
University Senate

University Governance

University Senate and its committees [Council on Academic Affairs (CAA), Committee on Academic Freedom and Responsibility (CAFR), Committee on Academic Misconduct (COAM), Athletic Council, Diversity Committee, Evaluation of Central Administrators (EOCA), Council on Enrollment and Student Progress (CESP), Faculty Committee on Patents and Copyrights, Faculty Compensation and Benefits Committee (FCBC), Faculty Hearing Committee, Fiscal Committee, Government Affairs Committee, Graduate

Associate Compensation & Benefits Committee, Honorary Degrees Committee, Council on Libraries and Information Technology (LIT), Council on the Physical Environment (COPE), Program Committee, Research Committee (URC), Rules Committee, Steering Committee, Council on Student Affairs (CSA)]

University Groups

Administrative Research Council (ARC)
Compliance Committee
Council of Deans
Council of Graduate Students
College Research officers (CROs)
Enterprise Risk Management Committee
Faculty Council
Information Technology Partnership Council
Inter-Professional Council
IT System sponsors
President's Council on Women
Research Council
Residence Halls Advisory Council
Undergraduate Student Government
President's Council on Diversity
University Senate and its committees (University Governance)
University Staff Advisory Committee (Executive Committee, SCBS)

Position Titles

ADA Coordinator
Building Coordinators
Center and Institutes Directors
Deans
Department Chairs and Directors
Graduate Studies Committee Chairs
Senior Fiscal Officers
Senior Human Resource Professionals
Vice Presidents

University Community Members

Alumni Association
External constituencies (e.g. university district)
Faculty
General public
Staff
Students
Volunteers

Subject matter experts