

Tally Hart First Generation Student Emergency Fund

Purpose: The Tally Hart First Generation Student Emergency Fund provides interim financial assistance to qualified undergraduate first generation students who have unforeseen expenses and lack the resources to meet those expenses. Some examples of such expenses are car repairs, emergency medical costs etc. Typically, these expenses would be under $500.

Eligibility: Any undergraduate first generation student attending Columbus Campus may be eligible for this additional grant. The student must be enrolled at least half- time for the term. Each grant will be given as one-time assistance for a specific emergency.

Selection Criteria: The Selection Committee will consider your application based on:

- Your Tally Hart First Generation Student Emergency Fund application and reason for assistance.
- Your financial need and other financial aid resources.
- Your academic progress.

Steps for applying:

- 1) Complete and sign the Tally Hart First Generation Student Emergency Fund application indicating the reason for the funds; attach an itemized statement of the expenses to be incurred from the business (or a receipt if already paid.)
- 2) Submit the completed application to:
The Ohio State University
Office of Student Financial Aid
