PROGRAM TREASURES OF SOUTHERN AFRICA!

From Prisoner to President

In 1990, the injustices of apartheid were in full swing. The government of South Africa had imprisoned Nelson Mandela for 27 years for anti-apartheid activities. Early in 1990, as the government began to dismantle its policies, Mandela was released from prison to engage in a process of negotiations with the white leaders. His return to South Africa on February 11, 1990, was a momentous event in the country’s history. Mandela’s leadership during this period was crucial in bringing about the end of apartheid. Today, Mandela’s leadership is celebrated more than ever before.

ROBBER’S ISLAND

While the Robber’s Island is the southernmost point of the country, it is also rich in history. In 1852, the island was declared a state prison by the British government to hold escaped convicts and political prisoners. The island was later abandoned in 1891, and today, it serves as a reminder of the country’s past. In 1938, the island was declared a national monument, and it is now a popular tourist attraction.

CAPE PENINSULA

In Cape Town, visitors can explore Table Mountain, the Cape of Good Hope, and the Mother City. The scenic road through the Cape Town suburbs is a popular attraction, and it is a great way to experience the city.

Cape Town is a vibrant city with a rich history. It was founded in 1652 by the Dutch East India Company as a staging post for ships traveling between Europe and Asia. Today, it is a bustling city with a thriving music and art scene.

THORNYBUSH GAME LODGE

In the Thornybush Game Reserve, visitors can experience the thrill of game drives.

VICTORIA FALLS

The Victoria Falls is a natural wonderland. It is one of the most beautiful waterfalls in the world, and it is a popular tourist attraction. Visitors can enjoy white-water rafting, horseback riding, and other activities in the area.

ROVOS RAIL

The Rovos Rail is a luxurious train journey from Cape Town to Pretoria. It is a must-do experience for anyone visiting the country.

YOUR LUXURIOUS ACCOMMODATIONS

Belmond Mount Nelson Hotel | Belmond Victoria Falls Hotel

The Belmond Mount Nelson Hotel is a luxurious hotel located in the heart of Cape Town. It is a great place to stay for those who want to experience the city’s vibrant culture.

The Belmond Victoria Falls Hotel is a luxury hotel located in Victoria Falls. It is a great place to stay for those who want to experience the beauty of the falls.
CAPE TOWN

Voted Africa's best city by Travel + Leisure magazine, Cape Town is one of the world's most beautiful cities. A city of contrasts and culture, Cape Town offers the perfect blend of land, sea and skyscrapers. Amazing scenery, warm temperatures and friendly locals make this city a must-see destination.

CAPE PENINSULA

Within sight of Cape Town, but unaffected by the city, lies an extraordinary stretch of coastline across False Bay and the Cape Peninsula, that is a part of the Cape Floral Region, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. A rocky, windswept coastline with spectacular views of Table Mountain and the ocean, this is a true natural wonder.

ROBBEN ISLAND

In 1962, Nelson Mandela, a young lawyer, was imprisoned on Robben Island for 18 years during South Africa's apartheid era. Mandela emerged from imprisonment in 1990 as the government began to dismantle the war on apartheid, now offers opportunity and hope for a better future. See South Africa's magnificent wildlife at the southern Africa's Cape Floral Region Protected Areas.

ROVOS RAIL

Since 1988, the luxury train experience of the “No. 1 train in the world” has been one of the most memorable journeys through southern Africa. You’ll see a world of natural beauty, wildlife, history and culture.

Johannesburg

If tranquil Cape Town is the gateway to the mountains and beaches of the Garden Route, bustling Johannesburg is the heart of South Africa's business and entertainment districts. Often referred to as Joburg, the city is a great mix of modern skyscrapers and colonial history.

VICTORIA FALLS

One of the world's greatest natural wonders, Victoria Falls is a sight to behold. The “smoke that thunders” is a welcome respite from the heat of the plains. The falls are surrounded by lush vegetation and colorful gardens dot the cityscape. A bustling city, Victoria Falls is the gateway to the iconic Zambezi River and its floodplain.

THORNYBUSH GAME LODGE | GAME RESERVE

Located near world-renowned Kruger National Park, the reserve offers incredible wildlife sightings and a chance to see the Big Five: the lion, elephant, buffalo, leopard, and rhinoceros. Thornybush Game Lodge is a luxurious home away from home.

Kololo tribe. “Discovered” on a visit to the falls by Sir Henry Morton Stanley, who re-created a bit of Victorian London in rural Zambia, the Victoria Falls Hotel was designed to resemble a traditional English hotel.

Day Three

After an overnight stay on an English-style paddle steamer, experience the thrill of the mine fields of the Northern Cape. Arrive in Kimberley in the Northern Cape province. Arrive in Queenstown in the Eastern Cape.

YOUR LUXURIOUS ACCOMMODATIONS

BELMOND MOUNT NELSON HOTEL | CAPE TOWN

Spend a night in this magnificent hotel, perched on the edge of the Victoria & Alfred Waterfront. Cape Town, and enjoy a great lunch of traditional South African cuisine, gather around the fireplace to trade tales of the day, or take a dip in the swimming pool.

ROVOS RAIL | LUXURY TRAIN

Experience the grandeur of Africa aboard the luxurious ROVOS RAIL. Ride in splendid vintage carriages, passing landscapes during a sumptuous breakfast, lunch and dinner. Enjoy the bustle of Pretoria, the cultural capital of the Republic of South Africa.

Day Two

Your train leaves Cape Town for Pretoria. Leave the Cape Floral Region behind and enter the lush greenery of the Vaal River Valley, the most fertile area in South Africa. Arrive at Pretoria and spend the day exploring the city center, the “Nellie” combines impeccably restored to mint condition and impeccably appointed rooms with world-class service.

Day One

This morning, awake to the scenery of the Karoo, the semi-desert area of South Africa. Experience the grandeur of Africa aboard the luxurious ROVOS RAIL. Ride in splendid vintage carriages, passing landscapes during a sumptuous breakfast, lunch and dinner. Enjoy the bustle of Pretoria, the cultural capital of the Republic of South Africa.

THE SAFARI EXPERIENCE

In Kruger National Park, the ultimate wildlife experience awaits. This is the Big Five area, the best place on earth to see Africa’s biggest animals. The park covers 2 million acres, which is equivalent to 3000 square miles. The Big Five are: the lion, elephant, black rhinoceros, leopard, and rhinoceros. These magnificent animals are the cornerstone of the park’s wildlife experience.

THORNYBUSH GAME LODGE | GAME RESERVE

Located near world-renowned Kruger National Park, the reserve offers incredible wildlife sightings and a chance to see the Big Five: the lion, elephant, buffalo, leopard, and rhinoceros. Thornybush Game Lodge is a luxurious home away from home.

Cape Town

The dramatic Table Mountain anchors the skyline of this coastal metropolis, where ancient history and contemporary culture converge. In the company of your guide, explore the Cape Town peninsula and rue the Table Mountain National Park, from the iconic-lookout site of the Victoria & Alfred Waterfront to the signature of Table Mountain with a drive up the mountain or a hike. Enjoy the Javier Cruz African tapestry and admire the Cape Town Symphony Orchestra.

Sloeber Island

This island is a heritage, cultural and natural confluence of African, Dutch and British environmental heritage and offers breathtaking views. Sloeber Island is home to a variety of seal species, including the magnificent whale sharks, and other marine life such as dolphins, whales, seals, and penguins.

At the harbor, disembark to explore the Cape Town waterfront and its vibrant day market. Pretend to be a sailor and partake in the daily catch on board a small-ship cruise, which will offer you the unique opportunity to observe the local marine life and take a swim with the dolphins.

For the partially independent traveler, the Knysna Loerie is a nature and wildlife festival. The Knysna Loerie is a nature and wildlife festival that celebrates the beauty of the area. The festival features a variety of events, including guided nature walks, wildlife shows, and concerts.

Robbie's Island

Visit the Cape Point Nature Reserve, which is famous for its scenic beauty and wildlife. Claim a spot on a guided tour to see the African penguin, the African elephant, and the Southern Right whale. Alternatively, visit the V & A Waterfront, where you can enjoy the spectrum of flavors and styles at the many restaurants and cafes.

Cape Peninsula

Enjoy the spectacular views from the Chapman's Peak Drive and the Cape Point Nature Reserve. Experience the Table Mountain cable car ride and the Cape Point lighthouse. Alternatively, enjoy the African penguin at the Boulders Beach Conservation Area.

Sloeber Island

In the heart of the Cape Peninsula, discover the Cape Point Nature Reserve. This reserve is home to the only African penguin colony in the world, which you can observe up close.

Victoria Falls

On the border of Zambia and Zimbabwe, the Victoria Falls Bridge is a stunning engineering marvel. The falls themselves are a breathtaking sight, with water cascading down a 128-foot cliff into a turquoise pool below. You can take a boat trip under the falls, which provides a unique perspective of the impressive sights.

Rovos Rail

A two-night train journey in a vintage train car offers a glimpse into the life of a bygone era. You can enjoy the African cuisine onboard and sample the local wines.

Your luxurious accommodations

Comfortable, air-conditioned accommodations await you in the library for your convenience. Each room features a private deck and an espresso machine. WiFi is available in the lounge area to keep you connected.

The Big Five

The Big Five is the name given to the five most dangerous species of animals in Africa. They include: the lion, elephant, black rhinoceros, Cape buffalo, and African leopard. These species are the most feared by hunters.

The phrase, The Big Five, was coined by safari guides to describe the most sought-after species in the African savannah. It was later popularized by British author and wildlife photographer Gordon Troup, who included it in his book "The Confessions of a Hunting Man."
Cape Town

Barbaras Toward the end of the 18th century, Oliver Goldsmith observed Cape Town’s beauty: “The sea, the lands and the sky are here most perfectly blended into one.” Today, the cosmopolitan city of Cape Town exchanges a rich cultural heritage with breathtaking natural beauty. Visitors can step back in time as they stop in Matjiesfontein, a small Victorian town that was once the center of the diamond trade. Today, the town is known for its heritage with a museum tracing the history of the diamond industry. In the 19th century, Sutherland, a town that dates back to 1832, was the capital of the Caledon District, and it still offers a glimpse of the past with its historic buildings. From the harbor, the Atlantic Ocean glistens as a world of culture, history, and natural beauty unfolds.

ROBBIEY ISLAND

Within sight of Cape Town, but a world away, lie the Robben Island Penitentiary and other penal colonies. Robben Island is a symbol of the struggle for freedom and human rights. Today, the island is a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and the prison that held Nelson Mandela is now a museum dedicated to his legacy. A visit to the island is a moving experience, as it serves as a testament to the strength of the human spirit.

Cape Peninsula

In Cape Town, visitors can take a drive along the scenic Chapman’s Peak Drive, which offers breathtaking views of the ocean and the city. In the evening, the aroma of freshly brewed coffee fills the air as diners gather around the fireplace to share stories of their day. The city is a showcase of Cape Dutch houses and blowing Dutch, and the oceanfront is dotted with beautiful beaches and historic lighthouses. Cape Town is a city that offers something for everyone, whether it’s a stroll along the Victoria and Alfred Waterfront or a scenic drive along the Cape Peninsula.

SOUTH AFRICA

SOUTH AFRICA, with its beautiful and varied landscapes, is a destination that offers something for every traveler. From the towering peaks of the Drakensberg Mountains to the vast grasslands of the Kalahari Desert, South Africa is a country of contrast. In the northwest, the Kalahari Desert is a vast expanse of sand dunes and rock formations, while the lush Drakensberg Mountains offer a different kind of beauty. In the south, the Cape Peninsula offers stunning views of the ocean and the city of Cape Town, which is home to the Table Mountain National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

VICTORIA FALLS

Flowing at iron's edge, the Zambezi River's mist forms a wall of water 300 ft (91 m) high, creating a rainbow of color. Known as "the smoke that thunders," by the region's indigenous people, the Victoria Falls Bridge spans the river, connecting Zambia and Zimbabwe. The bridge is a popular tourist destination, offering panoramic views of the falls and the surrounding landscape.

THORNYBUSH GAME LODGE |

Located in the private Thornybush Nature Reserve, the Thornybush Game Lodge is a dream destination for wildlife enthusiasts. The lodge is home to a variety of animals, including lions, leopards, and elephants, making it the perfect place to see the "Big Five" in their natural habitat. The lodge offers a range of activities, including game drives, guided walks, and bird watching. The lodge is also home to a spa, where guests can relax and rejuvenate.

BELMOND MOUNT NELSON HOTEL |

Set in the sunshine and shadow of Table Mountain, South Africa's highest peak, the Mount Nelson Hotel offers a luxurious stay. The hotel is a welcome retreat after a day of exploring the city, with its spacious suites and elegant décor. The hotel is also home to a spa, where guests can relax and unwind.

THORNYBUSH NATURE RESERVE |

The Thornybush Nature Reserve is home to a variety of animals, including lions, leopards, and elephants. The reserve offers a range of activities, including game drives, guided walks, and bird watching. The reserve is also home to a spa, where guests can relax and unwind.

ROVOS RAIL |

The Rovos Rail is a luxury train that offers a journey through the heart of Southern Africa. The train is a beloved destination for travelers, who are drawn to its elegant carriages and luxurious accommodations. The train is a wonderful way to explore the region, offering breathtaking views of the landscape and a chance to experience the rich culture of Southern Africa.

YOUR LUXURIOUS ACCOMMODATIONS |

The Rovos Rail offers a range of accommodations, from luxurious Pullman Suites to elegant carriages. Each suite is beautifully decorated and offers a range of amenities, including air conditioning, a mini-bar, and a private bathroom. Victoria Falls. "The Smoke that Thunders." Come discover the extraordinary rumbling of Victoria Falls, known locally as Mosi-oa-Tunya, and admire stunning panoramic coastal views. The Victoria Falls Hotel features ambiance and world-class service. "The Big Five," a term used to represent five of the world’s largest land mammals, is what you can expect to see on safari, but nowadays with a camera and a zoom lens mounted on a private Thornybush Nature Reserve will be a dream come true. There is no better way to experience Africa’s wildlife than with fellow travelers. After lunch, there is time for a game drive. Set off in pursuit of exotic animals or a herd of impala gracefully bounding across the savannah for the famous Big Five and the many other animals that live here. Chances are you will see a lion, leopard, elephant, rhinoceros, and buffalo.

From Prisoner for President
Nelson Mandela, who died in 2013 at the age of 95, was this and more to millions of people in South Africa and throughout the world. Mandela emerged from imprisonment in 1990 as the government began dismantling the apartheid machine. Four years later, Mandela was elected the first president of a democratic South Africa. Mandela’s life was one of struggle against oppression. In 1962, he was sentenced to life imprisonment as a political prisoner for his activities on behalf of the African National Congress. Mandela served 27 years, the longest of any prisoner in South Africa’s history.

South African wine is celebrated for its elegance and its uniqueness, and the wines of South Africa are often compared to fine French wines. In the Cape Town vineyards, you can taste the best of South African wines.
