Dear advertiser,

Congratulations on your decision to consider advertising in Ohio State Alumni Magazine, where your message will reach an audience of more than 100,000 passionate, connected Buckeyes.

The magazine is a gathering place in print for Ohio State grads, an alumni base that research demonstrates is one of the most engaged and committed in the country. A Gallup poll found 49 percent of the Ohio State alumni can’t imagine the world without their alma mater, and Buckeyes are nearly twice as likely to be attached to their school as graduates of other universities.

Ohio State’s more than 550,000 living graduates span the globe. While about half still call the Buckeye State home, large segments of our alumni live in major U.S. cities, with sizeable numbers in Washington, D.C.; New York City; Chicago; Dallas/Austin/Houston and Los Angeles.

Ten percent of our readers are under 36 — a segment of our readership we are actively working to grow — while 33 percent are 37–54 and 57 percent are 55+. At every age and wherever they live, our graduates are smart, innovative and future-focused.

Advertising in Ohio State Alumni Magazine not only provides you with cost-efficient access to an enthusiastic, educated audience, it also associates your organization with The Ohio State University and The Ohio State University Alumni Association. As our advertisers quickly discover, that's a win-win.

Our rate structure delivers significant value and has the flexibility to match your budget. If you’d like to talk further about this opportunity, contact adsales@osu.edu.

Many thanks for your consideration, and GO BUCKS!
