GLENN SCHOOL ALUMNI SOCIETY
2012-13 BOARD MEMBER COMMITMENT

The primary goal of the John Glenn School of Public Affairs (Glenn School) Alumni Society Board (the Board) is to support and promote the advancement of the Glenn School within and beyond The Ohio State University (OSU). Board members are expected to support educational and career opportunities for current Glenn School students, facilitate communication, foster loyalty, promote fellowship and encourage philanthropy among and between alumni, faculty, staff, students and friends of the Glenn School. Alumni who accept the three-year appointment are expected to fulfill the requirements and meet the responsibilities associated with board membership as stated below and in the Glenn School Alumni Society Constitution and Bylaws. In return, they can expect support and information from Glenn School staff and faculty.

What the Glenn School can expect from Board members:

1. Meetings: Attend in person or by teleconference of at least 60% of the meetings of the Glenn School Alumni Society Board
2. Membership: Be an annual, active member of the Ohio State University Alumni Association
3. Committees: Actively serve on at least one standing committee of the board and help to plan appropriate activities and services. Identify prospects and actively recruit other alumni volunteers to serve on board committees.
4. Participation: Participate in Glenn School alumni programs and events whenever possible.
5. Philanthropy: Make an annual financial contribution to the Glenn School to the best of their ability.
6. Communication: Serve as an ambassador for the Glenn School; promote the Glenn School's brand and image, and share knowledge and expertise about the Glenn School.

What Board members can expect from the Glenn School:

1. Opportunities to be engaged with and give back to the Glenn School.
2. Opportunities to network with alumni, students and the community via Glenn School related meetings and events.
3. Information regarding news, events, programs, and research initiatives of the Glenn School.
4. Staff provision of the necessary tools and support to facilitate and execute all alumni meetings and events.

Environment and Natural Recourses Alumni Society
Executive Board Member Commitment

The primary purpose of the Environment and Natural Resources Alumni Society Executive Board is to support and promote the advancement of the School of Environment and Natural Resources within and beyond The Ohio State University. Board members are expected to support the educational and career opportunities for both current students and Alumni. We work to facilitate communication, foster loyalty, promote fellowship and encourage philanthropy among and between the Alumni, faculty, staff, students and friends of the School of Environment and Natural Resources. Alumni who accept this three-year appointment are expected to fulfill the requirements and meet the responsibilities associated with board membership as stated below, and as directed by the ENRAS Constitution and By-laws. In return, Alumni can expect the support and appreciation for their service to our School of Environment and Natural Resources; our College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences; and The Ohio State University.

What ENRAS can expect from Board members:

1. Meetings: Attend in person or by teleconference of at least 60 percent of the meetings of the Environment and Natural Resources Executive Board.

2. Committees: Actively serve on at least one standing committee of the board and help to plan appropriate activities and services. Identify prospects and actively recruit other alumni volunteers to serve on board committees.

3. Participation: Participate in ENRAS alumni programs and events whenever possible.

4. Philanthropy: Become a Sustaining Member of The Ohio State University Alumni Association (OSUAA) by an annual financial gift of $75 or more. Your contribution will make you a Sustaining Member of both OSUAA and ENRAS.

5. Communication: Serve as an ambassador for ENRAS; promote the ENRAS brand; and share knowledge and expertise as a member of ENRAS.

What Board members can expect from ENRAS

1. Opportunities to be engaged with and give back to the School, College and University.

2. Opportunities to network with Alumni, students and the community via related meetings and events impacted by the School of Environment and Natural Resources.

3. Opportunities to learn and be informed through SENR events, programs, and research initiatives.

4. The necessary tools and support to facilitate and execute all alumni meetings and events.
