Ohio State Traditions

Oh! Come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise; While our hearts with the summer's heat expanding thrive, With joy which death alone can still.

The seasons pass, the years will roll; Time and change will surely show How firm thy friendship O-hi-o. Oh! Come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise; While our hearts with the summer's heat expanding thrive, With joy which death alone can still.
