ISSUE 1

In one of the more high-profile statewide ballot initiatives in the country, Ohio voters voted down State Issue 1 by a 54-46% margin. Issue 1 would have enacted a constitutional amendment to create a new Citizens Redistricting Commission comprised of five Democrats, five Republicans, and five independent members to draw Ohio's legislative districts.

FEDERAL

PRESIDENTIAL RACE:

Former President Donald J. Trump and Senator JD Vance defeated Vice President Kamala Harris and Minnesota Governor Tim Walz, receiving 312 electoral votes and winning the popular vote. Swearing-in for President-elect Trump and Vice President-elect Vance will occur on January 20, 2025.

U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:

The Republican Party will retain control of the U.S. House of Representatives. The Ohio Congressional delegation will see a new House member. David Taylor (R-OH) will replace retiring U.S. House Representative Brad Wenstrup (R-OH-2).

U.S. SENATE:

The Republican Party will assume the majority of the U.S. senate, after gaining four seats in West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Montana. The Ohio Congressional delegation will have a new U.S. senator. Bernie Moreno (R-OH) defeated incumbent U.S. senator Sherrod Brown with 50.1% of the vote. The delegation will also see an additional new Senator once Vice President-elect JD Vance formally resigns his Senate seat to assume the office of the Vice President. Governor DeWine will appoint a new Senator to fill the vacancy until a special election in November 2026.

STATE SUPREME COURT

Ohio voters also decided on three of the seven justices to serve on the Ohio Supreme Court. The outcomes will shift the court's Republican majority to 6-1.

STATE SUPREME COURT CHIEF JUSTICE - Democrat Incumbent Justice Melody Stewart lost to Republican Incumbent Justice Joe Deters.

STATE SUPREME COURT JUSTICE - Democrat Incumbent Justice Michael Donnelly lost to his Republican challenger, Megan Shanahan.

STATE SUPREME COURT JUSTICE - Democrat Lisa Forbes lost to Franklin County Republican Dan Hawkins.

OHIO SENATE

Of Ohio's 33 Ohio Senate districts, there were 17 seats up for election this year, consisting of the 16 even-numbered districts and an election to fill the vacancy of a term for the 33rd Senate District in Youngstown. State Senate terms are four years and in the current 135th General Assembly, the Republicans hold a 26-7 majority. Senate Democrats picked up two seats, which will narrow the Senate Republican's majority to 24-9 in the 136th General Assembly.

SENATE DISTRICT 16 - In the only Senate seat in Franklin County that was up this cycle, where current State Rep. Beth Liston (D-Dublin) defeated Besa Sharrah (R) to replace outgoing State Senator Stephanie Kunze (R-Hilliard) who was term-limited.

OTHER KEY SENATE RACES: Outside of Franklin County, there were two races that were competitive:

SENATE DISTRICT 6 - State Rep. Willis Blackshear (D-Dayton) defeated Charlotte McGuire (R), a member of the Ohio State Board of Education in this newly drawn district in Montgomery County.

SENATE DISTRICT 24 - Long-time State Rep. Tom Patton (R-Strongsville) defeated Sue Durichko (D) in this highly competitive Cuyahoga County seat.

OHIO HOUSE

---

With all House seats being on two-year terms, all 99 districts in the Ohio House were up for election. House Republicans currently hold a 67-32 majority however, due to a loss of two seats, Republicans are expected to have a 65-34 majority heading into next year. Due to a handful of newly drawn legislative districts and term limits, there will be a total of 27 new House members in the 136th General Assembly.

The Franklin County delegation is comprised of Districts 1-12, eleven of which will now be controlled by Democrats.

- District 1 – Incumbent State Rep. Dontavius Jarrells (D – Columbus) ran unopposed and was reelected to another term.
- District 2 – Incumbent State Rep. Latyna M. Humphrey (D – Columbus) defeated Eric Terford (L).
- District 3 – Incumbent State Rep. Ismail Mohamed (D – Columbus) ran unopposed and was reelected to another term.
- District 4 – Incumbent State Rep. Beryl Brown Piccolantonio (D – Gahanna) defeated Jason Allevalo (R).
- District 5 – Meredith Lawson-Rowe (D) ran unopposed and was elected to serve her first term in the House.
- District 6 – Christine Cockley (D) defeated Hussein Jabiri (R).
- District 7 – Incumbent State Rep. Allison Russo (D – Upper Arlington) defeated Susan Miller (WI).
- District 8 – Incumbent State Rep. Anita Somani (D – Dublin) defeated Aaron Neumann (R).
- District 9 – Incumbent State Rep. Munira Abdullahi (D – Columbus) defeated Brandy Seymour (L).
- District 10 – Mark Sigrist (D) defeated Brian Garvine (R).
- District 11 – Crystal Lett (D) defeated Stephanie Kunze (R – Dublin).
- District 12 – Incumbent State Rep. Brian Stewart (R – Ashville) defeated Brad Cotton (D).

Other Key House Races: Outside of Franklin County, there were some closely contested races in a handful of swing districts:

- District 23 – In Lake County, Democrat State Rep Dan Troy (D – Willowick) fended off a challenge by Tony Hocevar (R) in this increasingly Republican NE Ohio county.
- District 27 – Cincinnati-area Democrat incumbent State Rep. Rachel Baker (D – Cincinnati) defeated Curt Hartman (R).
- District 31 – Republican incumbent Bill Roemer (R – Richfield) held off his challenger A.J. Harris (D) in this Summit County District.
- District 35 – Incumbent State Rep. Steve Demetriou (R – Bainbridge Twp.) fended off a challenge by Mark Curtis (D).
- District 52 – Incumbent State Rep. Gayle Manning (R – North Ridgeville) won her race against Genevieve Flieger (D) in this Lorain County district.
