POMP, CIRCUMSTANCE, AND OTHER SONGS OF A LIFETIME

—by Professor David Citino, 1947–2005, Late University Poet Laureate (Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you're like me, you've got a big head, not to mention a funny robe, full of music—poems and melodies, the tunes we move to, shower and shave by, study, write to. Not just the incidental, but the momentous music keeping time.

Our histories are measures of song.
Listen to your heart: drums of Africa, sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho's honeyed love lyrics. Often, music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolpho in Puccini's La Boheme, Sono un poeta.

I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write. This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year or that first day of graduate school.

In my head I press Play, and the CD of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger over moments too sweet, nearly, for words.

I'll never escape rhymes from the nursery.
Up above the world so high, like a diamond in the sky. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents of Cleveland. Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were.

Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades.
Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King (King of what, fried butter sandwiches?) who stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of mine. As with those profs and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—kill some rabbits—to earn respect.

And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford, "Sixteen Tons": St. Peter don't you call me 'Cause I can't go. I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Volare, Wo-oo. Cantare, Wo-o-o-o.
My grandfather was a peasant farmer, a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying. Lucky, lucky, lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gun.

I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours,
That leaves eight hours for fun.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere, or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even,

President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport.
You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing.
You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing with the diversity of us. Diversity.
Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

Alma Mater—Carmen Ohio

*Oh! Come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill,
With joy which death alone can still.
Summer's heat or winter's cold,
The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will surely show How firm thy friendship—O-hi-o!*

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

Jerry Revish

Jerry Revish is an award-winning journalist who helped write the first draft of news history in central Ohio for more than four decades. Over the course of his long career, he helped enlighten viewers and listeners across the region — delivering news stories from throughout the community and around the world.

Mr. Revish launched his career in 1972 as a reporter and editor for WBBW Radio in his hometown of Youngstown, Ohio. Two years later, he began a 45-year tenure with the Dispatch Broadcasting Group in Columbus — first at WBNS Radio and later at WBNS-10TV, where he anchored the 5, 6 and 11 o'clock editions of 10TV News from 2005 until his retirement in 2019.

Mr. Revish's reporting skills frequently took him across the globe. He was the first Columbus TV journalist to report from Saudi Arabia during the Persian Gulf War in 1990. His work from the region, titled "Desert Shield Diary," won an Emmy Award. Mr. Revish has also reported from Haiti, Barbados, South Africa, Bosnia, Bahrain, Cuba and Japan.

His most personally satisfying work was closer to home, covering President Barack Obama's inauguration and helping Columbus bodybuilder Walter Smith — wrongfully convicted of rape — win his freedom through DNA testing.

Mr. Revish's reporting honors include the Silver Circle Award and 13 Emmys from the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences; four Regional Edward R. Murrow Awards; Associated Press Awards for best feature, best documentary and best spot news coverage; the Carl Day Award for Outstanding Achievement; and the Best International Reporting Award from the National Association of Black Journalists for a series of reports on the liberation of Haiti and a half-hour documentary on the new South Africa. He was inducted into the Ohio Broadcasters Hall of Fame in 2005.

Mr. Revish currently serves as senior pastor at Unity Temple Church of God in Christ in Columbus, which he and his wife, Danielle, founded in 2011. The couple have two children and four grandchildren.

A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT JOHNSON

Hello graduates!

You have my most heartfelt congratulations on accomplishing so much during such a challenging time.

Although our celebration during this pandemic has to be virtual, it is nonetheless a celebration. Like most ambitious people, most of you are probably intensely focused on what's next. But I hope you take a moment truly to enjoy this day — and also to thank your families and friends for their support along the way.

As Buckeyes, we know exactly what we stand for. We are one of the nation's largest land-grant universities. We stand for service, exploration, excellence and citizenship. During this time of COVID-19, all of you have demonstrated those qualities over and over, whether in research, on the front lines of health care or by protecting others and completing your degrees despite the obstacles. Our pride in you is immense.

I hope that your pride in The Ohio State University sustains you throughout the years ahead. As our school song "Carmen Ohio" says, "Thoughts of thee bid darkness go/Dear Alma Mater...OHIO!" Even in the most difficult of times, we truly are a place of brightness and brilliance, and your achievements are an important part of that.

You are now Buckeyes for life. I know all of you will continue to make us proud, as you take your knowledge and skills into new realms and reshape the world through your service.

Congratulations, again, and I cannot wait to see what you do next!

Sincerely yours,

Kristina M. Johnson, PhD
President

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELCOME TO THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Congratulations, and welcome to the Buckeye alumni family, Class of 2020!

I know that each one of you has a unique Ohio State story to tell about your journey with us thus far, and your graduation will certainly stand apart from those who came before. Our unwavering commitment to you is also unique. The Ohio State University Alumni Association is dedicated to finding special ways to recognize your achievement in this extraordinary time.

I look forward to the day when we can celebrate this milestone together, and until we can all link arms and sing our alma mater's praise again, take heart and know that you are not alone. You have more than 570,000 fellow alumni around the globe ready to offer advice or lend a hand!

If you read the lyrics to "Carmen Ohio" — all three verses, not just the one we Buckeyes have memorized — you will see lines about both the good times and the bad. It references "happy days of yore" and "blackened sky or barren shoal." Now more than ever, it is easy to see the truth in these words. But, as the seasons pass, even amid all the world's uncertainties, I know one thing for sure: We are Buckeyes, and we will get through this together.

We will be with you wherever you go. You'll discover alumni clubs and societies in more than 100 cities, organizing everything from game watch parties to scholarship fundraisers. Take advantage of our alumni association's career resources, lifelong learning and networking opportunities, as well as ways to volunteer or pay forward in service to others.

Visit osu.edu/alumni to learn more about the benefits available to you. Explore our virtual opportunities for tips on how to cope during these unsettled times, or search for a new job. You can also download the alumni app to keep Ohio State in your pocket and hear news from campus, stories from alumni and much more.

This chapter in your Ohio State story is coming to an end, but the chapters to come offer endless opportunities and excitement. And never forget: You always have been, and always will be, a Buckeye for life.

In firm friendship,

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably resulted in the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square — a shape that, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study.

*Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

I say, rather, the richness of us, precious difference, the grand multiplicity of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you're sitting twenty-six years ago.

Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles!
My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history.
Now you, graduates, are being honored—by degrees. We've all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State.

Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we'll sing together, Beautiful Ohio, in dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78's and 33's, tapes, CD's—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing with pleasure or bathed in the blues.

We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul.

Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry is there. Drive, drive on down the field,

Men (and women!) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park, and you searched our dark, ancient library for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary's, father marched in the first "Script Ohio," in 1936. He's here today with us, blowing his horn, I can't help but feel, as is the sweet mother I lost last year, the one who gave me the stars. Today's music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay.

So many of us would not be here were it not for the lullabies and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs.

Some are here today in the flesh.
Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song.

When we sing to others, we honor our fathers and mothers, thank them for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise. Alma mater.

Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother.

We came of age here, with her help.
Well, Mother, we love you, but, like, it's time we moved out, got a place of our own. You're standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet from crying. We won't forget you.

Now, even though this ceremony means we're being weaned, taken off the nipple, let's take care to cherish her all our days. Let's remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We'll remember always, Graduation Day. Summer's heat, and winter's cold, The seasons pass, the years will roll, Time and change will surely show How firm thy friendship, O-hi-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You've worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.

You're filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we've written together. You know the score.
Continue to work hard for yourselves, and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world.

Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn our ancestors collaborated on with us, the calling of your name today is music to our ears. Sing that name proudly all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.
