“No Place for Hate” Taskforce Report and Recommendations

Chairs
Dr. Javaune Adams-Gaston, Vice President for Student Life
Dr. Valerie B. Lee, Vice Provost for Diversity and Inclusion, Vice President for Outreach and Engagement, and Chief Diversity Officer
Judge Algenon Marbley, BOT Representative
President E. Gordon Gee charged a Taskforce with developing short- and long-term recommendations that would improve the university’s inclusiveness and diversity, and ensure that the Ohio State community is open and welcome to all. The ‘No Place for Hate’ Taskforce is comprised of students, staff, and faculty members representing a wide variety of constituent groups from across campus. The Taskforce was specifically created to address concerns related to incidences of negative race and ethnicity language and behaviors. The following are the recommendations of the Taskforce.

The Taskforce placed the demands in three categories, awareness, climate, recruitment and retention.

“We define ‘diversity and inclusion’ broadly. Diversity refers to the variety of differences and similarities/dimensions among people, such as age, class/caste, culture, education, disability, gender identity or expression, generation, geography, language, nationality, race/ethnicity, religion, sex, sexual orientation, tribal/indigenous origins, work style, work experience, job role and function, thinking style, personality type, veteran status, and military status.

Inclusion refers to how diversity is leveraged to create a fair, equitable, healthy and high-performing organization or community where all individuals are respected, feel engaged and motivated, and their contributions toward meeting organizational and societal goals are valued.”

RECOMMENDATIONS FROM THE TASKFORCE

AWARENESS
SHORT TERM:

• Create a Public Safety Hate Crime Alert
• Make sure each alert also references the Bias Assessment and Response Team (BART) as an additional resource and mention its web address (http://studentlife.osu.edu/bias/)
• Create a universal OSU Helpline, with dispatchers trained in university referrals (i.e. health, safety, wellness, hate crimes, escort services etc.)

1 This definition is a version of OSU consultant Alan Richter’s diversity definition, as modified by the OSU Senate Diversity Committee. See O’Mara and Richter Global Diversity and Inclusion Benchmarks: Standards for Organizations Around the World. The appropriate subcommittee of the taskforce may choose to further refine this definition of diversity.

2 As noted on its website: BART receives, monitors, refers, and, as necessary, coordinates university responses to hate and bias-related incidents that impact all or a significant portion of the university community. Incidents may involve bias or hate grounded in race, religion, sex, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, ethnicity, national origin, age, or disability that occur within the university community.
• Create an opportunity for all students to "opt-in" to diversity email listservs (e.g. MCC, Hale Black Cultural Center, Kirwan Institute, etc.) Place a reminder in Buckeyelink To-Do List to alert students of the opportunity to join such listservs
• Require participation in the Office of Student Life Multicultural Center's Open Doors Pilot program for student staff workers (e.g. University Ambassadors, Orientation Leaders, Student Life resident assistants, Union student staff, Office of Diversity and Inclusion student staff workers Hale Center, etc)
• Develop a university accepted and supported definition of diversity

LONG TERM:
• Broadly distribute the university mission statement and include a definition of diversity
• Include discussions of domestic diversity as a portal to larger discussions about global studies
• Create a Certificate for Diversity Competence to be noted on university transcripts
• Regularly review Ohio State’s relationship and social responsibility with local communities and continue to enhance our position as a good corporate citizen of the Columbus and Global community
• Include all segments of the university community concerning general messaging about diversity and inclusion
• Support 2nd year InterGroup Dialogue course requirement as part of the 2nd year sophomore transformation residence initiative

CLIMATE

SHORT TERM:
• Ensure that diversity and inclusion is a priority by making it a part of all institutional “branding” efforts.
• Design new and revise existing institutional homepages to include prominent “links” directly to diversity and inclusion initiatives, statements and offices.
• Promote a system of accountability for all student organizations regarding diversity programming.
• Ensure that all academic and support unit strategic action plans address, capture, and report diversity goals, activity, and service. Ensure assessment and transparency.
• Investigate the opportunity for OSU students to select a preferred name, to be incorporated in the OSU student systems. (Buckeyelink, Registrar, Student Center)
• Engage in discussion with the University Senate Steering Committee to determine whether a President's Commission for Diversity and Inclusion should be re-established or if the diversity sub-committee of University Senate should be redesigned to address these issues

LONG TERM:
• Create opportunities for students, faculty and staff to engage in OSU’s history (positive and negative aspects), signaling to the campus community that issues of race, racism and the institution’s historical legacy are acknowledged and understood

RECRUITMENT/RETENTION

LONG TERM
• Promote racial, ethnic, and other forms of diversity for students admitted to each of the campuses of The Ohio State University, including its flagship campus in Columbus
• Seek to provide sufficient financial support to promote the matriculation of students from underrepresented populations
• Increase efforts to recruit and retain underrepresented faculty and systematically analyze and assess results
• Continue recruitment of potential graduate students from Historically Black Colleges and Universities, Hispanic Serving Institutions, and Tribal Colleges
• Establish new and expand existing outreach programs connected with rural and urban high schools that have historically sent few students to Ohio State

Post-Taskforce Standing Committees:

Terms: Short-Term – 1 year; Long-Term – 2-5 years; Assessment – Regularly every, 6 months
Brief Timeline Prior to Taskforce Creation

- On April 4, 2012 during the “Hoodies and Headscarves” event on the Oval a man was detained for flashing an empty gun holster at rally participants. A video of the event prior to the arrest is on YouTube, “Hoodies and Headscarves Event at OSU<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4LvVYoVZlo>.”

- The Black Student Association had already planned to host an event on 4/5/12 entitled, “Civil unrest: The reemergence of hate crimes?” where they would facilitate a dialogue about Trayvon Martin, Shaima Alawadi, and Tyler Clementi. The meeting still addressed these issues, but in collaboration with the Black Graduate and Professional Student Caucus, OSU NAACP, faculty, administrators and staff, the meeting was altered to include discussions about that morning’s events.

- As a result of the April 5, 2012 BSA meeting, students created 3 demands they would present to the OSU Board of Trustees during the 4/6 board meeting. See “Our 3 Demands<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CefcAQU92A4&feature=relmfu>” on YouTube. Students, faculty, staff and administrators marched from the Frank W. Hale, Jr. Black Cultural Center to the Board of Trustees meeting for a silent protest; the OSU Police blocked streets on campus to help marchers travel safely

- Also on April 5, 2012, during the OSU Board of Trustees meeting, President Gee and the Board commissioned the No Place for Hate Taskforce and asked Dr. Javaune Adams-Gaston and Dr. Valerie Lee to co-chair the group.

- On morning of April 6, 2012 a mural of President Obama on the corner of 11th and 4th was discovered vandalized with swastikas and “the N word.”

- Student leaders created an e-mail account (osustandyourground@gmail.com) and Twitter account: @OSUSTandUp (#OSUSTandYourGround).

- At 12:00pm on April 6, 2012 students, faculty, staff and administrators gathered at the Ohio Union for a sit-in. In addition to poems and speeches, students participated in impromptu “teach-ins"
The Ohio Union staff was very supportive and provided sound systems and even temporarily waived their catering policies to allow the BSA to order in pizza for participants.

- At approximately 4:45 pm on April 6, 2012 the University Police issued a its first Hate Crime Alert, which includes the Clery Act’s definition of a hate crime. At approximately 6:00 pm on April 6, 2012 Dr. Javaune Adams-Gaston and Dr. Valerie Lee issued a statement introducing the task force that will provide President Gee with recommendations for solutions.

Student Demands:

Presented at the OSU Board of Trustee Meeting April 6, 2012

1. The establishment of hate crime alerts to inform the campus about hate crimes
2. A greater increase in the number of African-American students and faculty on campus as a part of the increase in diversity in general at all levels.
3. Policies and programs promoting inclusion, not just tolerance.
