Thank you for your interest in The Ohio State University’s Women & Philanthropy grant funding program.

The Women & Philanthropy program connects generations of women alumnae and friends of Ohio State who each make an annual gift and pool their dollars together to impact large projects and scholarships at the University. From just 6 women in 2006, Women and Philanthropy has grown to more than 175 members annually.

Each year, our fund starts at $0. Members of Women & Philanthropy help build our fund and decide whose lives will be changed by how we spend.

Through our grant funding program, members have the opportunity to provide support to the colleges and units at Ohio State through a direct, participatory role in the grant making process. This application will evaluate your project’s suitability for partnership with Women & Philanthropy as a grant finalist for the July 2020 - June 2021 cycle.

Mission:
Women & Philanthropy at The Ohio State University is dedicated to educating its members about areas of extraordinary excellence at Ohio State and assisting women alumni and friends in celebrating their personal philanthropic abilities.

Vision:
To inspire and empower women of Ohio State to become visionary agents of change as a collective force, supporting Ohio State’s creation of meaningful impact both locally and across the world.

Purpose of grant program:
- Cultivate women as philanthropic leaders
- Create a substantial pool of money from women
- Identify appropriate and timely grant funding opportunities
- Allocate funds based on member’s majority preference
- Accomplish change and advance critical priorities
- Partner collaboratively with stakeholders in colleges and units
- Celebrate the impact of funded projects
- Be a recognized leader in women’s philanthropy

General Overview
- Applicants (“Project Lead”) must be current Ohio State University faculty or staff who is the subject matter expert and will serve as the main point of contact for Women & Philanthropy. Please do not list a graduate student or PhD candidate as the project lead.
- Grants awarded typically range between $25K - $50K
- Finalists are required to present to the full Women & Philanthropy membership for consideration during the 2020-2021 program year. A mutually agreed upon date will be selected between the grant finalists and Women & Philanthropy.
Use of granted funds:
Funds are to be used to carry out the program effort or initiative as defined in the grant proposal. Women & Philanthropy considers support for program/research operating costs, new and innovative projects, as well as established programs.

Your investment as the grant partner:
Women & Philanthropy works in partnership with its grant finalists to advance their research or program at The Ohio State University. We expect that the investment of our dollars will be matched by the recipient’s investment of time and collaboration. If selected as a finalist, grant partners are expected to:

- Present their research/program on an agreed upon date. The top three finalists selected are required to provide a private, lecture-style presentation to the full Women & Philanthropy membership during the 2020-2021 program year. Members attend grant presentation events to learn more from Ohio State faculty and staff about their goals and the meaningful impact they are hoping to make with the funds being requested. Events often include a unique experience such as a hands on activity or behind the scenes tour. Grant presentation events are planned and hosted by the Women & Philanthropy program, but grantee collaboration is imperative to ensure their success.
- Promote their partnership with Women & Philanthropy to project stakeholders, include department faculty, university leaders, and alumni/friends of your college or unit.
- Provide inspiring stories and pictures of your project for Women & Philanthropy materials and marketing.
- Attend our annual awards celebration (May 2021)
- Participate in post grant funding evaluation reporting
